Dear Martha,

Time brings about many changes in the life of a university campus. The barracks are long gone. Where Barracks 40 and 41 once stood, the new South Hall (below) offers housing for 200 students. The first modern dorm to offer a cozy fireplace for students to relax by and drink hot chocolate...or at least that's the image that came to my mind!

The most recent physical change to the campus is the tearing down of the B.A. Skipper Dining Hall. Gone is the old SAGA (below). Students now enjoy a variety of cuisine in the Corner Café, affectionately known among the students as the new SAGA. The café was once the Assembly Building where chapel services were held.
Yes, the campus is changing, being upgraded to offer our students more modern amenities. However, the mission of LeTourneau University has not changed. We are holding fast to the vision of R.G. LeTourneau who felt the call to be a Christian business leader. “Every Workplace, Every Nation” speaks of the intentional design to produce graduates who are competent professionals, capable of being salt and light in their workplaces. Another thing that will never change in the Alumni and Parents Relations Office, is our wish for a very Merry Christmas!

Warmest Regards,
Martha Steed
Director of Alumni and Parent Relations
