Dear Martha,

This has been an exciting and sad month for us at LeTourneau University. When students returned to campus from Christmas break they were greeted by an empty lot where once stood the B.A. Skipper Dining Hall, affectionately known as SAGA. While most of the student body and the administration know the plans for this newly evacuated space, it is a mystery to the outside community. Watch in the next few months for an announcement of what is coming in that space!

Our campus said goodbye to a much beloved professor this month. A memorial service was held on January 11, 2012, for longtime welding engineer professor, Bill Kielhorn. Bill had taught at LeTourneau for 45 years, never missing a day of class. His last class was taught from the bed of his ICU room. Alumni traveled from all over the country to honor their teacher, mentor and friend.

Homecoming/Parent Weekend 2012 is shaping up to be our biggest alumni/family event yet. The schedule is being constantly updated, so visit our website and check out the Homecoming/Parent Weekend Schedule for details. Hope you plan to join us April 13-14, 2012!

God bless you,

Martha Steed
Director of Alumni and Parent Relations
