

A Life of Persecution

Fix the Story

Several words in the Bible story below are incorrect. Some are a close spelling, others are simply the wrong word. All the correct words are listed alphabetically on the right. Cross out the incorrect word(s) and write the correct words above them. Look up the story in 2nd Corinthians 11:23-27 if you need help. There might be some words in the list you don't need.

Paul rote to the Soldiers in Corinth and told of the bad food he endured as he shared the Gospel message. In his travels he experienced 47 times being shipwrecked, one time floating in coffee for a day and a month. He endured blissful nights, hunger, thirst, cold and exhaustion. He did all this so he could tell a few people about Jesus. Some people tried to kill him by stabbing him. Three times people beat him with baseball bats and once he received 39 lashes with a wet noodle. He spent time in jail with his friend Noah. At the end of his life, he was in a Roman restaurant, chained to a Roman soldier. During those days he wrote poems to the churches. We have those poems as part of the Old Testament today. Blizzards did not stop him, and as Jesus taught, it should not stop us either.
