

Be Ready to Stand God Gives Opportunities

Just like all of us, Esther had natural positive attributes. She also had limitations due to her life circumstances. What advice could these friends give to folks who feel their limitations are holding them back from serving the Lord?

I've got good training and job experience, but I'm so shy in speaking situations.

I've been a teacher for a long time, but I'm a brand new Christian. I know hardly anything about the Bible.

I'd like to help out at church, but I feel overwhelmed with family responsibilities.

Being on the road so much, I'd hate to take on a responsibility and then miss too often.
