Spiros the Spy is on a dangerous assignment in Guadutusoraq. He is struggling with worry. He has received this encoded message from one of the local pastors. As you see, it is a quote from Billy Graham. Can you help him out? The key will be found in the unscrambling of the clue words (which are from your Bible passage today). Then use the numbers to fill in the message blanks. When you finish the decryption, we will return the message to the embassy there in the secure diplomatic courier bag.
