Family Discussion

“

Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that."

Discussion

- Why does it seem easy to leave God out of our planning process for our finances, family responsibilities, leisure time, and the like?
- For one of those areas, why would it be a good idea to pursue knowing God's will as we plan?
- What are some steps you can take to determine God's will?

Prayer

- Thank God for His guidance in your life. Name a specific situation where God has guided your steps.
- Ask God to help you remember to seek His direction as you plan your days, both short- and long-range plans.
- Pray for God's guidance for plans that are in the making right now.
