Looks to me like the decoding key above would work for this message. It was received from one of our operatives in Sintsland Hrainmais. He smuggled it into the embassy in a delivery of fresh fish. Our decoders have gone on strike for more bubble gum. We need your help. When you see a letter under the blank, look at the bottom row of the key and use the letter above it. When you finish the decoding, forward it to your benevolence minister.
