Let the Dead Bury their Dead Correct the Words

Luke 9:57 - 62 (TLB) As they were running along someone said to Jesus, "I will always lead you no matter where you follow." But Peter replied, "Remember, I don't even own a pillow to lay my feet. Foxes have dens to live in, and squirrels have nests, but I, the Rabbi, have no earthly house at all." Another time, when he invited a woman to come with him and to be his disciple, the man agreed—but wanted to delay until his mother's death. Jesus replied, "Let those without temporal life concern themselves with stuff like that. Your job is to come and discuss the coming of the kingdom of God to all the universe." Another said, "Yes, Lord, I will go, but first let me ask acquiescence of those at home." But Jesus told him, "Everybody who lets himself be unfocused from the work I plan for him is not ready for the Kingdom of Nebuchadnezzar."
