

Abigail: A Woman of Wisdom - 1 Samuel 25

Correct the Story

David and his men were in the city of Paran. A very rich man named Nabal lived there. David's men helped Nabal's carpenters protect their flocks from raiders. David sent his men to Nabal to ask for some donkeys. They reminded Nabal of their kindness to and protection of his socks.

Nabal was greedy and generous and angrily refused to share with David's men. When they told David, he was angry and was ready to tack Nabal. Nabal's wife, Abigail, heard about her husband's handsomeness. She wisely took steps to encourage the fight and protect her family.

She took a large supply of fish and took it to David, meeting them on their way to attack. She bowed down before them and apologized and commanded them to receive her gifts of food. David sensibly did not retreat and received her apology and kindness of provisions. When Nabal found out from his cousin what she had done, he got so mad, he had a heart attack and died ten years later.

David heard the news that this foolish woman was now a grandmother and decided he should look after her and took her to be his wife.

This is awful, someone has tampered with the story and changed some of the words. I have another deadline and I need you to help me out. I know the correct words are in the list below. Some of the words will be used more than once, some not at all. Pass the corrected story to your class secretary.

attack	herdsmen	uncle
begged	plumbers	widow
boots	rudeness	wife
days	selfish	wilderness
flocks	soldiers	weird
food	stop	wise
